

Dare To Lead

By: Brene' Brown

Brave Work. Tough Conversations. Whole Hearts.

Let's face it, being a principal is one of the hardest, yet most rewarding and important jobs in education. In her book "Dare to Lead" Brene' Brown speaks to the importance of "Rumbling with Vulnerability."

Leading takes courage, and Brown gives great tools for leaders to be empowered to lead with love, doing the hard things that need to happen along the way.

Her tools include things like: The Square Squad, Treasure Hunting, Serving with Heart, Armored Leadership, Living our Values, and many more.

Clear is Kind

One of my favorite sayings in her book is "Clear is Kind", and "Unclear is Unkind."

As educational leaders we have tough conversations every single day. At times, we all deal with an unhappy parent, teacher who may not be meeting expectations, or students who need our love, support, and help in so many ways. As I mentioned, being a principal is hard, but this book will help you in taking on the challenges we face each day as principals.

I highly recommend "Dare to Lead" as part of your library. It is an amazing book filled with tools, stories, and insights that will help you. Thanks for being great principal's and daring to lead in such a unique time in education. What you are doing matters! Best of luck on your journeys.
