

Trust and Inspire: Kasperson, Covey, Judd

Analogy to Students:

- Death Valley has the Highest recorded temperatures on Earth, considered Barren no-life, impossible to grow, 1913 highest recorded temperature of 134 degrees F
- Spring of 2005 6 inches of rain fell, most ever recorded in a short period of time
- Wildflowers were amazing - Students can be like that. Don't give up on them, keep pouring in water.

Key Points: Leadership based on Trust - Speed of Trust (Follow Up Book)

- 3 Stewardships: A) Be who you are, B) Trust how you lead, C) Connect the Why
- Overcoming Barriers:
 - This won't work here....
 - What if I lose control...
 - What if it doesn't work...
 - I have been burned before...
 - What are some other reasons we feel might be a burden to change or leadership?

“ It's not about me, it's about what we do for other people.” - Inga Beale
