

Utah Secondary Secretary of the Year – Deborah Hoehne

Congratulations to Deborah Hoehne from Layton High School who has been selected as the Utah Secondary Secretary of the Year for 2024-25.

Debbie is the Head Secretary at LHS. Previously, she has been a secretary at Centerville Junior High and Syracuse High School.

Debbie does a little bit of everything at Layton High School She keeps everyone on track. She is so patient and kind, and is approachable. She always has so much energy as well as a positive attitude. She is completely dedicated to her job. She makes everyone feel important. She is truly the heartbeat of the school. She comes before anyone else gets there and is still there when everyone leaves for the day. She is retiring this year and everyone is dreading it because they don't know how the school will function!

Principal Brock Jackman said, "She is respected by her administrators, her teachers, and her fellow secretaries. Whenever there is a problem, she is called upon for her sage advice by fellow schools as well as district personnel. She uses humor to endear her teachers and staff members to her and is the epitome of professionalism. She has trained her office personnel to be warm and welcoming as well as expecting great follow-through on assigned tasks. Debbie is an incredible secretary that helps our school to be better."

Congratulations to Debbie Hoehne, our Secondary Secretary of the Year!
