October 20, 2026

Secondary Administrators,

We are excited to invite all secondary assistant principals to our annual UASSP AP Conference! Principals - thank you for supporting your assistant principals in attending.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL'S CONFERENCE - NOVEMBER 4
It is time to register for the annual AP Conference on November 4 at the Show Barn at Thanksgiving Point, which is a larger venue this year. We will hear from many great leaders on topics you deal with every day.

The conference begins with breakfast at 7:30 AM and concludes at 2 PM. Lunch will be provided. The agenda will include the following presenters:

Dr. Bobby Low holds a PhD in Performance Psychology. He is the author of Wiring Intelligence: From Reactive to Proactive — 8 Mindsets to Control Performance Under Pressure, which teaches individuals how to intentionally train their minds to perform when it matters most.

Jeremy Andrus, President and CEO of Traeger and Entrepreneur of the Year will share important strategies about leadership and a culture of growth.

Cindy Davis, a member of the Utah School Board of Education and former secondary administrator, will share "behind the scenes" insights on how to impact decisions made by local and state leaders.

Officer Chris Ruiz, the President of the SRO Association in Utah, will discuss understanding the latest laws about safety, how to conduct a proper search, and the importance of maintaining a great working relationship with your SRO.

Bill Schuffenhauer: How does someone who grew up with drug-addicted parents, lived in 17 foster homes, and had a childhood filled with gangs and chaos, become a 3X Olympic medalist and 2X Sports Hall of Fame inductee? We will find out.

As you can see, the conference will feature fantastic speakers, great food, collaboration activities, prizes, and more! Register now at uassp.org.

Thanks for all that you do to help your secondary students be successful!

See you soon!
